B45 | BUNGLE BUNGLE HELICOPTER FLIGHT

Flight time: 45 minutes | Cost: $425 per person

As we take off from Warmun, we are but a minute away from the Osmand Range, in Purnululu Conservation Area, quite spectacular in its own right as it abuts the World Heritage Listed Purnululu National Park. The Osmand Range is one of the Kimberley's lesser-known spectacular ranges, filled with Livistona palms clinging to gorges and endless waves of ancient rocks rolling towards the east. Over the Bungle Bungle, this flight takes in the Red Rock Gorges of the Northern Massif, the Western Wall, Horseshoe Valley, Piccaninny Gorge and Creek with its ancient banded sandstone domes, Deep Gorge and Y Gorge.

- Flights depart from inside the National Park
- HeliSpirit flights offer the best value for money
- Office and helipad at Bellburn Airstrip, Purnululu National Park
- The original helicopter flight operator in the Bungle Bungle

A18 | BUNGLE BUNGLE DOMES SPECIAL

Flight time: 18 minutes | Cost: $299 per person

Depart Bellburn Airstrip for the southern tip of the Bungle Bungle Range where you will view Y Gorge before flying across the top of the massif to the mouth of spectacular Piccaninny Gorge. Soar over Piccaninny Creek to view and photograph Cathedral Gorge and the famous black and orange striped beehive shaped domes.

A30 | THE ORIGINAL HELICOPTER FLIGHT OVER THE BUNGLE BUNGLE

Flight time: 30 minutes | Cost: $399 per person

The sandstone massif of the Bungle Bungle Range is almost 99 times the area of Uluru – there are more stunning features and spectacular landforms to see in this half hour scenic flight than you would imagine possible. View the hidden red rock gorges of the north west tip, Piccaninny Gorge from end to end and the unique beehive formations that have contributed to the listing of Purnululu National Park as one of Australia's World Heritage areas.

A42 | BUNGLE BUNGLE LONG LOOK

Flight time: 42 minutes | Cost: $499 per person

Depart Bellburn Airstrip for the southern tip of the Bungle Bungle Range to view Deep Gorge and 'The Twins'. Continue on to the highest point of the Bungle Bungle and the spectacular Red Rock Gorges of the north-west. View the eastern side of the range, to encounter incredible eroded sandstone formations and a maze of gorges, soaring over the Valley of the Giants with its massive sandstone structures. Fly along the southern face to the mouth of Piccaninny Gorge, follow Piccaninny Creek to view and photograph Cathedral Gorge and the famous orange and black striped beehive shaped domes.

A18BB4 | PICCANINNY GORGE HELI-HIKE

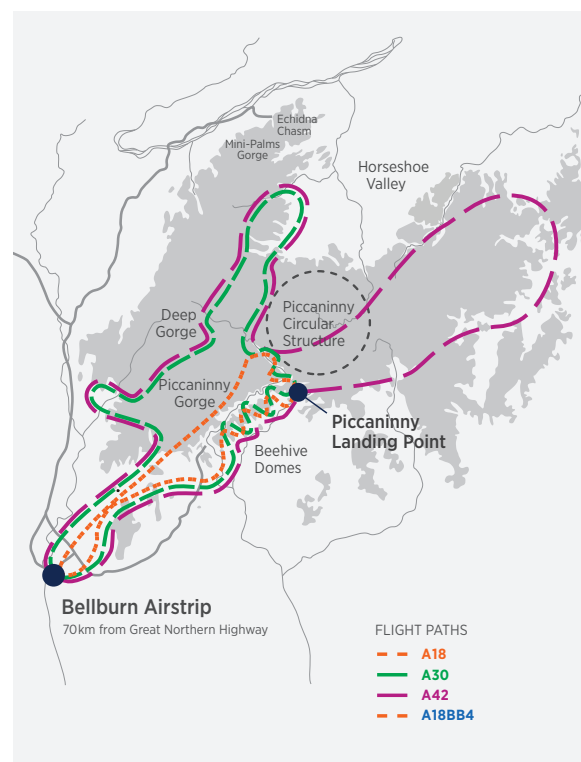

Departs: Bellburn Airstrip early morning | Flight time: 12 minutes and 6 minutes
 Tour duration: 8 hours | Cost: $997 per person

Fly over the Bungle Bungle on the Domes Special flight (A18) and land near the mouth of Piccaninny Gorge. This enormous gorge spreads into five fingers as it cuts through the Bungle Bungle Range. Your guide will lead the hike into the gorge and tell you about the area's significance to the Aboriginal people and it's unique history, which led to the world heritage listing of Purnululu. The hike is up to 10km return and requires a high level of fitness and mobility. The rocky creek bed of Piccaninny Gorge is classed as a level 5 walk. Picnic lunch, morning/afternoon tea and cold water is included.

ABOUT PURNULULU NATIONAL PARK – THE BUNGLE BUNGLE

The World Heritage listed Purnululu National Park is the first National Park in the Kimberley to be jointly managed by the Aboriginal Traditional owners and the Parks and Wildlife Service. The system of joint management acknowledges the Aboriginal people's traditional responsibility for care of the country and the well-being of visitors. HeliSpirit, as a licensed tour operator within Purnululu, adheres to and continually improves upon sustainability principles within the park. This ensures that future generations will enjoy the beauty of this unique landscape.

Our operations are conducted in a manner which enhances visitor experiences and preserves park values. Our achievement in being recognised as a Green Travel leader, having held Eco Certification for over 10 years, shows our commitment to sustainable tourism. HeliSpirit together with each of our passengers, is further contributing to the management of Purnululu in a financial capacity; a percentage of the tour price is paid to the Parks and Wildlife Service to preserve this natural area and provide visitor amenities.
